It's been 7 years since Roy and Eva were shipwrecked on the tropical isle of Mehetia; and it's only when Roy finds a digital watch that they realise what time of the year it is – December. So this year, the castaways are going to do Christmas! However, they are 7 years out of practice, so they'll need some help making it happen, and that's if a mysterious man in a mask doesn't ruin the fun along the way!

Fun for all the family, Christmas Castaways is an original hour long pant-ivity, combining all the fun of a panto with the message of the nativity.
